

Daily Devotion For April 5, 2022

⁹ The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. Instead he is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance." 2 Peter 3:9

Yesterday I had the opportunity to meet with a number of students on the campus of MPC who were part of CRU (formerly, Campus Crusade for Christ). Earlier in the semester I met a student named Sara in my swim class who is active in CRU and she invited me to their weekly meetings.

As I met with these student's I was greatly impressed by their hunger to study the word and share their faith on campus. One young student, Randy, led us in a bible study on John chapter 3:1-15. Another student named Matthew, led a student to Christ over the weekend. Dan, a 45 year old CRU missionary shared that they want to see a spiritual revival on campus.

2 Peter 3:9, tells us that God is not willing that any should perish but that everyone comes to repentance and faith in Jesus. As Randy led our study today, he emphasized John 3:15; ¹⁵ that everyone who believes may have eternal life in him."

Thought For Today: How would you assess your desire for people to come to a saving knowledge of Christ. When was the last time you told someone that eternal life can be found by believing in Jesus?

Today's Prayer Focus: Who comes to mind when you think of someone who needs Jesus and eternal life? Take time to pray for them today. Deo Volente.
